

TASTING NOTES

WINE EDITOR JIM HISLOP SHARES HIS SELECTION OF BUDGET-FRIENDLY QUAFFERS CURRENTLY ON SHELF AT PNP. GREAT WITH MINCE TOO!

GOOD-VALUE SHIRAZ

House of Mandela Shiraz. Produced by the Mandela family's winery, this juicy, medium-bodied Fairtrade wine boasts delicious subtle black pepper flavours. Smooth and very quaffable, it's ready to drink now! Serve with the bobotie mince parcels on page 33. R49.99

Did you know?

Pick n Pay stocks its own affordable brand of Italian wines. Produced and bottled in Italy exclusively for PnP, the easy-drinking range features eight nicely priced wines from the regions of Tuscany, Emilia Romagna and Veneto. Salute! bit.ly/wineltaly

NICELY PRICED PINOTAGE

Earthbound Organic Pinotage is a moreish, well-priced Fairtrade wine from the West Coast Darling district, with intense red fruit flavours, an underlying oaky smokiness and a pleasing lingering aftertaste. R52.99

Budget white

Place in the Sun Sauvignon Blanc. Affordable and easy drinking, this stunningly crisp, lively sipper has alluring tropical fruit flavours. Serve with green salads, white fish fillets and cream-free pasta dishes. Some of the profits from this Fairtrade cellar's wines go into a farmworkers' trust for education and upliftment, so drink up! R39.99
